

CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION.....	7
-------------------	---

CHAPTER 2

CONSTRUCTING THE COLONIAL/EARLY POSTCOLONIAL SUBJECT: V.S. NAIPAUL'S FICTION.....	19
---	----

2.1. The Background.....	19
--------------------------	----

2.2. Third Person Narratives	24
------------------------------------	----

2.2.1. The Mystic Masseur : Defining Failure and Success for the Colonial Subject.....	25
---	----

2.2.2. A House for Mr Biswas : The Road to Independence	42
--	----

2.3 First Person Narratives: The Mimic Men	68
---	----

2.3.1. The Mimic Men : Constructing the Postcolonial Re-membering Subject	68
--	----

2.4. Half a Life and Magic Seeds – Mixing Third Person and First Person Narratives	85
--	----

2.4.1. The Transition from Decolonization to Globalization	86
--	----

2.4.2. Existential Crisis and the Postcolonial Subject.....	97
---	----

CHAPTER 3

THE POSTCOLONIAL SUBJECT IN THE ERA OF GLOBALIZATION: SALMAN RUSHDIE'S FICTION.....	109
---	-----

3.1. The Background.....	109
--------------------------	-----

3.2. Third Person Narratives	115
------------------------------------	-----

3.2.1. The Satanic Verses – General Observations.....	116
--	-----

3.2.2. Falling from the Sky: Histories of Migration, Spaces of Hybridity, Metamorphic Identities	122
--	-----

3.2.3. The Ground beneath Her Feet : Hybridity and Katabasis against the Backdrop of Global Capitalism.....	134
3.2.4. Hybridity and Globalization.....	136
3.2.5. Abjection, Metamorphosis and Katabasis.....	145
3.2.6. Fury and Shalimar the Clown – General Observations.....	155
3.2.7. The Pathos of Anger.....	159
3.3. First Person Narratives.....	164
3.3.1. Midnight's Children : The Intertwining of Self and History.....	165
3.3.2. The Moor's Last Sigh : The Shift from History to the Individual.....	177

CHAPTER 4

A NEW HISTORICIST APPROACH TO THE CONSTRUCTION OF (POST)COLONIAL SUBJECTIVITY191

4.1. Historical Specificities of the Construction of Subjectivity in V.S. Naipaul's Fiction.....	194
4.2. Historical Specificities of the Construction of Subjectivity in Salman Rushdie's Fiction.....	205
4.3. Conclusion: the Influence of Existentialism and Postmodernism/ Postcolonialism on the Construction of Subjectivity in V.S. Naipaul's and Salman Rushdie's Fiction.....	216

BIBLIOGRAPHY.....227